

Walk Tall

©1986 Joe Streno / Elemental Music

She doesn't think that she's so pretty
She thinks that she's pretty plain
But with that kind of thinking
She' gonna drive herself insane
Little does she know right now her beauty's no transitory thing

He doesn't think that he's too handsome
He thinks that he's too thin
He doesn't like where he's going
He's never liked where he's been
If they've been running away too long
Or they cower in the face of change
If you've been feeling down my friends
It's time to walk tall again

One foot in front of the other that's all you need...oh yeah
One foot in front of the other things won't seem half as bad
Little do they know right now it's time to face adversity

Well people aren't always happy
With their world as it is
But if they lack conviction
They will never ever win
If you've been running away too long
Or it's hard to face off change
If you've been feeling down my friends
It's time to walk tall again

One foot in front of the other that's all you need ... oh yeah
One foot in front of the other things won't seem half as bad
One foot in front of the other and there's no mountain you can't climb

One foot in front of the other that's all you need ... oh yeah
One foot in front of the other things won't seem half as bad
One foot in front of the other and there's no mountain you can't climb

Put one foot in front of the other
